

COMUNICADO

The Operational Group reports that, since the last press release on the Pandemic Influenza, no infection was detected at the University of Madeira in this time period.

The Pandemic Influenza Contingency Plan has evolved in accordance with what was established, ensuring the continuity of the necessary measures until the regression of the Pandemic is verified and the Rector and his team find it appropriate to adopt changes to the guidelines in force.

Funchal, March 19th, 2010

The Operational Group